

MONARCHIES.

Under Suggests Martial Law Ireland, and Excluding Par-sell from Parliament.

Protesting Cattlemen Win, and Falling to Agree, Must Fight Again.

The Bloody Thunderer.

Dec. 24.—The Times in an editorial this morning suggests that the difficulty could be easily settled in months by the exclusion of the Par-sell from the house of commons and the admission of martial law in Ireland.

The Boycott Goes On.

Dec. 24.—Representatives of the Steam Packet company and of the dealers association met to-day to discuss the concessions proposed by the company yesterday. The conference progressed amicably until the company refused to sign the agreement, when a quarrel arose, and representatives refused to sign the agreement. In consequence of the failure, the cattle dealers resolved to continue the boycott.

Greatly Elated.

Dec. 24.—The Cork Steam Packet company, which has been boycotted by nationalist cattle dealers for several months, has at last made a concession to cattlemen. The company agrees not to carry cattle that have been seized for payment of rent, of that have been seized upon farms from which tenants have been evicted. The company also to take the unexpired charters of vessels hired by the Cattlemen's association, and to pay dealers for the losses suffered by them, amounting to several thousand pounds since the commencement of the boycott. The Nationalists are greatly elated over their success.

His Reason for the Crime.

Dec. 24.—Wm. Sheehan, convicted on the 19th of having murdered his brother, his brother and his sister in October, 1877, has made a full confession of the crime. Sheehan declares that he was driven to commit the murders by the persecution of his mother in demanding $20,000 from her son (the murderer) for marrying Miss Brown.

Leave Deutschland.

Dec. 24.—The foreign office at London, England, the American minister, is intended to expel the German-Americans residing at Schleswig who emigrate to the United States just before being liable to military service and return to Germany. The recent German-American expulsion of other German-Americans remains suspended.

Score.

Dec. 24.—The explosion of mine No. 1, at the mine of the level, otherwise the mine in the lower level, has killed 50 men in the lower level, and has killed 50 men in the lower level. The injured and scores of places of safety by their more fortunate companions.

A Fine Theater.

VALPARAISO, CHILI, Dec. 24.—Concerts will be given in Municipal park to celebrate Christmas. It is stated that the construction of the new theater up to the present time has cost $400,000, and it will require $100,000 more to complete it, which is expected to be finished by the end of January.

It Will Be An Organ.

SANTIAGO, CHILI, Dec. 24.—On Monday next a new paper, called the Figaro, will be published with the object of supporting Senator Jose Manuel Balmaceda, the Liberal candidate for the presidency of the republic. Several well-known writers will contribute to this paper.

The French Cabinet Resigns.

PARIS, Dec. 24.—The chamber of deputies has adopted the Tonquin credit by a vote of 274 to 270. It is rumored that owing to the closeness of the vote the cabinet has resigned.

Treaty of Commerce.

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—Zanzibar and Germany have signed the treaty of commerce, the provisions of which favor the Hamburg mercantile community and the East African society.

Reports of Cholera.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—It is reported that cholera is raging in Cayenne, the capital of French Guiana.

ADDITIONAL STATE NEWS.

More Newspapers.

EL PASO, TEX., Dec. 24.—The Evening Tribune, an additional daily paper, appeared here to-day. The paper is edited by Charles W. Greene, formerly editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican. By January the city will have three dailies-taking the Associated Press.

Robbers Caught.

KILGARE, TEX., Dec. 24.—The parties who entered E. W. Anderson's store, at this place, were captured last night between Dallas and Jefferson. Each one had in his possession three suits of clothes, and one had a shot-gun stolen from Mr. Edward. They are now at this place awaiting the arrival of Sheriff Choate, who will conduct them to Linden jail.

He Sobered Up.

DALLAS, TEX., Dec. 24.—A telegram was received by Marshal Arnold from Weatherford last night to arrest P. Davis, who had got drunk and come to Dallas.
The telegram added that he had considerable money on him, and was quarrelsome.

and was liable to get into trouble. Davis was found in a saloon in a very advanced state of intoxication and locked up. The officers found $311.25 in money on his person. He sobered up and was taken home on this evening's train.

The War Whoop.

Special to the Gazette.
MOUNT PLEASANT, TEX., Dec. 24.— Lots of people in town to-day, to-morrow being Christmas. Taking into consideration the number of people in town all passed off quietly until darkness began to show itself. The war whoop was then sounded by a man named John Dunigan, an employee of the Texas & St. Louis railway at Cookeville. This man had been hunting for a fight all day and claiming he was the champion of this part of Texas.
He found his match eventually in J. B. leed, who must have satisfied his want.
Were you to see Mr. Dunigan you would say that he did.

A Great Success.

Special to the Gazette.
HOLLAND, TEX., Dec. 24.—The supper announced for last night was a splendid success, socially and financially. Miss Mollie Goode recited a beautiful selection, which was fully appreciated.
Miss Carrie Porter, late from Chicago School of Elocution, rendered several pieces and completely captivated the audience. Her powers in that line are certainly wonderful. The ladies deserve much credit for their untiring energy shown in making the supper a success.

Small Failure at Clarksville.

Special to the Gazette.
CLARKSVILLE, TEX., Dec. 24.—The three storehouses of J. M. Anderson in Clarksville and Annona closed their doors at 9 o'clock this morning. Investigation revealed the fact that a mortgage-in-trust had been made for the benefit of certain creditors and was recorded in the clerk's office to-day. The instrument provides for the payment of $1300 worth of claims, over half of them being held by the mortgagees, W. B. Allen, Lewis C.
Stiles and the Citizens' bank. Creditors other than those in Clarksville and Annona are unprovided for. Assets unknown until an invoice can be made.

Lampass.

LAMPASSA, TEX., Dec. 24.—All of the Sunday-schools in town had beautiful Christmas trees to-night.

Pete Galtham, our big-hearted butcher, has his market gaily decorated with evergreens and a large Christmas-tree. He donated fowls, pigs, etc., to the poor of the city.

Only one light so far, between a prominent lawyer and a furniture man; they were separated before doing any damage to each other.

J. T. W. Lowe is organizing a lodge of Knights of Labor here to-night.

Court at Jefferson.

Special to the Gazette.
JEFFERSON, TEX., Dec. 24.—The order of business for the term of the district court as announced from the bench is as follows: The state docket for the first week; the non-jury trial docket for the second week; the civil jury docket for Monday of the third week. But several capital cases have been set for days in third week, leaving the court at leisure to take up the civil non-jury January 7, 1880, the three whose cases were set for trial on December 28, for the Christmas holidays.

The Noble Ladies.

Special to the Gazette.
BOWIE, TEX., Dec. 24.—Every one is busy preparing for Christmas trees tonight. There will be two of them. The noble-hearted ladies of Bowie have been hunting for the poor of our city and intend making them happy to-morrow. Santa Claus will be king to-night.

There is weeping and wailing amongst the poor—gobblers to-day.
Cotton is still coming in lively. There are 1200 bales on hand now. Bowie claims to be the boss cotton market on the Fort Worth & Denver railroad, as more cotton is shipped from here than any other station on the road.

John G. Campbell, manager of the Red River Land and Cattle company, is in town to-day fixing for Christmas.

Bird's Budget.

Special to the Gazette.
BAIRD, TEX., Dec. 24.—Yesterday evening our usually quiet city was lively for awhile, made up by a couple of young Americans getting too much Christmas ahead and undertaking to paint the town red. They succeeded in so doing for quite awhile. Constable W. C. Asbury was the only peace officer in the town.
He, with the assistance of several citizens, succeeded in caging the birds. We think that Officer Asbury deserves great credit for the deliberation used in the management of this affair. He made several warm friends by yesterday's work.

A team was frightened by fire-works of the small boys a few moments ago, and A Residence in Ashes.

Special to the Gazette.
LAMPASSA, TEX., Dec. 24.—A fire tonight destroyed the residence of W. L.
Abbott. Loss about $2000; insurance, $1500.

The Mystery of the Milk.

"Milkman's Milk" is quoted by a popular journal as being "weak and quieting." In a "condensed milk" factory in the milk district of New York state it was found to be worse than that. The farmers had diluted it with water and then thickened it with borax and salt-petre. Is it any wonder that after feeding on this mess the people suffer from indigestion?
Brown's Iron Bitters conquers indigestion in young or old; regulates bowels and kidneys, and promotes perfect health in spite of the milk adulterators.

MEXICANS VS. INDIANS.

A Bloody Fight in Which Eleven Red Men Die, and Many Horses are Captured.
Special to the Gazette.

EL PASO, TEX., Dec. 24.—A runner arrived in Las Cruces, N. M., to-day, bringing particulars of the fight between volunteers and the Indians near the railroad track between Clifton and Lordsburg. The Indians were taken by surprise before daylight this morning and eleven were killed and thirty of their horses taken. The volunteers were mostly composed of Mexicans. The Indians offered little resistance and scattered in all directions on foot through the mountains.

TERRELL.

More Marriage Bells—Becoming a Nuisance
—A New Court-House.
Special to the Gazette.

TERRELL, TEX., Dec. 24.—On Tuesday the public school closed for the holidays.
Wednesday Prof. D. E. Hunter departed on a visit to his family at Bloomington, Ind.

Mrs. T. M. Kell went on board the westbound train to visit her parents in Illinois and to witness the marriage of Miss Kell.

Again the marriage bells have rung out loud and clear. At 7:30 last night an immense audience assembled at the Methodist church to witness the ceremony of union between Mr. John Wyche and Miss Zulika Tucker. At 8 the wedding march sounded forth its joyous peal. At this instant the happy pair entered the north aisle, the bride leaning on her affianced's arm. Stepping beneath the arch of cedar prepared for the Christmas tree, the beautiful ceremony was performed by Rev.
J. R. Allen from McKinney, assisted by Rev. R. M. Powers, presiding elder from the Dallas district. The groom was clad in the conventional black suit while the bride was attired in cardinal satin and was the very embodiment of loveliness.
Presents were numerous and costly, prominent among which was a beautiful swinging pitcher, the offering of the bride's co-teachers in the public school.

Mrs. T. C. Glass, who died from cancer Monday, was buried Tuesday, being followed to the grave by a host of warm and sympathetic friends.

Auction stands on Terrell streets are becoming an intolerable nuisance to which the council should direct special attention.

Every church and Sunday-school is erecting a Christmas tree, and many a little fellow will go home to-night blessing old Santa.

Rev. John R. Allen and wife from Mc Kinney are visiting relatives here.

The grand jury presented sixty-one bills. In their report they condemn in strong terms the present county clerk's office building as unsafe both for the preservation of the records and for the removal of the clerk. They recommend the removal of the records to one of the front rooms in the first story of the jail, and the removal, we are informed, will be effected in a few days. They did not in terms recommend the building of a new courthouse, but suggested that each commissioner at once feel of the pulse of his constituents on that subject, and guide themselves thereby. It is safe to say that within twelve months from this time Kaufman county will have a new courthouse.

The brother of Levi Camper, who sublided Saturday evening, arrived this morning, and will carry the remains of the unfortunate man back to Lancaster, Pa.

A BIG SWINDLE.

The Works are Found Guilty, But Get a New Trial and Give Bail.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Dec. 24.—The trial of George F. Work, Samuel Work and Shreve Ackley, members of the late firm of Geo. F. Work & Co., brokers, charged with conspiracy to defraud the People's Passenger Railway company of this city, ended to-night. The indictment upon which the accused were tried contained a charge of setting forth in substance a conspiracy to cheat and defraud the company.

Geo. F. Work, who has been chosen as one of the directors of the company, the firm of which he was the head was made the financial agent of the company, that subsequently Samuel Work and Shreve Ackley were elected directors, and the three defendants thus constituted a majority of the board. That the capital stock of the company was then increased and by manipulations of stock and by subsequent issues, defendants, as directors, negotiating with themselves, as financial agents, made by one transaction $350,000 which they put in their pockets. It was further alleged that by hypothecation of bonds and by the manipulation of preferred stock, defendants realized large personal profit at the expense of the company. The trial began on December 15, and the case was yesterday given to the jury, who after about thirty hours deliberation returned a verdict at 9 o'clock to-night, finding George F. Work and Samuel Work guilty of the third indictment in the count, and Shreve Ackley not guilty, and acquitted them all of the other counts. The third count charged them with conspiracy to embezzle $300,- 000 of money and properties of the railway company. Counsel for the convicted men made a motion for a new trial, and the motion being allowed, the Works were permitted to renew their bail.

RAILINGS.

Didn't Ascend the Stairs.

Special to the Gazette.
HOUSTON, TEX., Dec. 24.—Buck Robin, a railroad man, took morphine with suicidal purpose last night, but was saved.

Officials Change.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Dec. 24.—The announcement is made here that George W. Rutledge, general traffic manager of the Atlantic & Pacific railway, has tendered his resignation to take effect January 1.
W. A. Russell, at present local freight agent of the Atlantic & Pacific company, will succeed Rutledge. It is also stated that the latter will accept the position of manager of Erie freight.

BANK RECEIVER.

A Co-Receiver for the Houston Bank

Asked For—Nearly a Row.
Special to the Gazette.

HOUSTON, TEX., Dec. 24.—District Judge Masterson, sitting in chambers, appointed C. Anson Jones special master in chancery to handle the City bank matters. Attorneys representing $125,000 of depositors petitioned for the appointment of a co-receiver. The court withheld its decision until the 5th of January. A serious row was imminent in the courtroom on account of a reflection cast by attorneys on the honesty of the management of the bank officers. It is reported that criminal proceeding against the City bank officials, for criminal conduct, will be instituted.

THAT BROKEN BANK.

Officers Save Their Money.

Special to the Gazette.
GALVESTON, TEX., Dec. 24.—The streets of the city presented a busy appearance to-day and this evening, being crowded with sight-seers and all classes of people buying Christmas gifts. Tonight the numerous saloons of the city are being exceedingly well patronized by those who think it is quite the thing to usher in Christmas with a glorious drink.
From gentlemen who have spent some time in Houston investigating the affairs of the City bank it is learned that the liabilities of the bank, including the deposits, will aggregate about two hundred and eighty-five thousand dollars. If trust deeds to President Baker and Robert Lockhart are sustained by the courts and the property which the deeds convey is converted to satisfy the claims of President Baker and those members of the directory who advanced money to the bank, then the above-mentioned liabilities are practically without security of any character. It is the opinion of bankers here who claim to know something of the City bank's affairs that the depositors stand a poor show of receiving anything at all, much less being paid in full, as has been stated by the late officials of the City bank. The Houston Insurance company, whose capital of $800,000 was almost entirely invested in stock of the City bank, has been compelled to retire from business. All its risks have been reinsured in the City of London company, limited, and the affairs of the Houston company will be immediately wound up. The principal stockholders of the insurance company were also officers of the City bank.

STATEHOOD.

Delegates from the Counties in Dakota to Come Together to Talk.

FARGO, D. T., Dec. 24.—A call has been issued for a delegate convention to meet at Fargo, January 12, and to continue in session several days, to be composed of from one to fourteen delegates from each of the seventy counties of North and Central Dakota. The objects are to give an expression to public sentiment upon the division, and statehood, the ruling of Commissioner Sparks in land matters, and the decision of the United States supreme court in the Northern Pacific land cases.

The Ocean Greyhounds.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—It is officially announced that the Anchor line steamer City of Rome and the steamer American of the National line, two of the fastest and best appointed ocean greyhounds, will form an express service between New York and Liverpool, commencing in April. While the service is to be permanent it is started at this time with special reference to the projected international and other exhibitions, including the American and Colonial ones in London next year and those at Liverpool and Edinburgh.

Too Much Paragonic.

Yesterday afternoon a man named Cole with his family arrived here and put up at the Southern hotel, being new arrivals from Kentucky. He told a reporter that while between Texarkana and this city his baby was sick with the colic, and a strange lady gave it a dose of paragonic.
About 10 o'clock last night he telephoned for a doctor. The infant had fallen into a sleep so profound that no efforts would wake it. Both parents were frightened and Dr. W. A. Adams was sent for.

Christmas Services.

At St. Andrew's church, corner Rusk and East Fifth streets, services will be held to-day as follows: Early celebration of the holy communion at 7:30 a.m., morning prayer, holy communion and sermon at 10:30 a.m. The church has been tastefully decorated and good music prepared to honor the high feast of the Lord's nativity.
